Strengthening Risk Culture Together

ACCCE

The Association of Certified
Commercial Cannabis Experts

Empowering Commercial Cannabis Professionals

WHAT DOES ACCCE DO?

The Association of Certified Commercial Cannabis Experts (ACCCE, pronounced “ace”) is a member organization dedicated to advancing the professional knowledge, skills, and experience of those committed to cannabis risk management and promotion of sound commercial cannabis policies and procedures. ACCCE supports professionals working in the commercial cannabis industry by providing access to the knowledge, resources, and tailored training needed to understand the complexities and risks of the commercial cannabis industry.

CRM ALLIANCE MEMBERSHIP

The Cannabis Risk Management (CRM) alliance membership is the vehicle to demonstrate a commitment to risk management that experts are taking to strengthen their risk culture. CRM Alliance Members join ACCCE’s broader alliance membership coalition to demonstrate industry leadership.

The CRM alliance membership provides immediate access to experts that will assist in the development of risk management roadmaps, best practices, and governance techniques. CRM Alliance Members contribute to this overall vision.

The Cannabis Risk Management Alliance Membership provides guidance and resources for businesses pursuing cannabis risk management. To increase valuation, recognition, and company image, these businesses implement risk management best practices.

These members demonstrate a commitment to a strong risk culture by:

1. Implementing a risk program in accordance with ACCCE’s roadmap
2. Showcasing achievements for lowering their risk profile
3. Recognizing certified cannabis risk management professionals on their team
