

SARAH BALBOA

Sarah Balboa has been in the hemp and cannabis fields since 2015 on both the manufacturing side and the retail side. Helping build and create one of the largest vertically integrated hemp manufacturing companies in the country, Hammer Enterprises, she is one of the youngest female directors in the industry.

Sarah has promoted collaboration with various regulatory agencies in both Colorado and Utah and in October 2017 she successfully petitioned for re-zoning approval of the first industrial hemp extraction operations in Colorado and the nation.

At Hemplucid she manages the implementation of all production and compliance related SOPs and policies along with all certifications including Organic, Kosher, Vegan, cGMP and ISO 9001, 22000 and 14001.

Sarah has a Bachelor's degree in Human Biology and Psychology and is a Certified Commercial Cannabis Expert (CCCE).
